

5-15: Participation of Persons with Disabilities

- Issued: 8-99
- Revised:

It is the policy and practice of Fort Lewis College to actively encourage qualified persons with disabilities, whether employees or volunteers, to participate as members of planning and advisory committees. Such participation will assist the campus in accommodating the needs of persons with disabilities as programs, services and facilities develop.