Course Load - Graduate

Normal Course Load

Normal course load is defined as the number of credits students are expected to enroll in each fall, spring, and summer semester as indicated in the departmental course sequencing. For graduate programs designed for working adults, the normal course load may be less than a full-time load.

Enrollment Certification Course Load

For purposes of enrollment certification for third parties, students' course loads will be categorized as full-time, half-time, or part-time as follows:

	Full-Time	Half-Time	Part-Time
Fall, Spring, and Summer Semester	9 semester credits	4-8 semester credits	1-3 semester credits
